LOTS OF MUSIC FOR COMPANY H DANCE TOMORROW

A musical treat not included in the original program has been thrown in for good measure in the Company H entertainment at the armory tomorrow night. Through the courtesy of Mayor Fern the Hawaiian band, under the leadership of Captain Berger, will give an open-air concert in the executive grounds, opposite the armory, between 7:30 and 8:30, at which hour the military ball given by Company H, the Chinese-American organization of the National Guard of Hawaii, will be opened. For the dance itself an orchestra of 16 pieces will provide the music, 20 dances being on the program.

The members of Company H have been working hard for some days past making preparations for the entertainment, and it is expected that the splendid dancing floor of the armory will be thickly populated.

The Chinese-American soldiers are trying to raise money to furnish their company quarters, and all the proceeds of tomorrow's dance will be used for this purpose. At the present time the company rooms are almost bare of furniture, and there is nothing to bring the citizen-soldiers to the armory when off duty.

H company will be one of the best organizations of the guard from now on, for it is practically certain that the command will be taken to the Panama-Pacific exposition next year, and it is up to the company to fit itself for this trip. Excellence will be demanded, as the organization is sure to attract special attention among the thousands of the organized militia at the encampment, the men being the only Chinese soldiers wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam.

SCHOOL STREET PROJECT STILL HANGS IN AIR

The fate of the project for the extension of School street will not be known until next Tuesday at least. Another, which makes the third, hearing has been called for the consideration of this project. At a meeting of the board of supervisors last night considerable time was taken up in the discussion of this work, which is planned to be done under the direct frontage tax statutes. Arguments for, and against it were made. F. Schiack, president of the Kaili Improvement club, appeared in opposition to the project; C. W. Ashford in favor of it. Several Hawaiian property owners in the district were present and, as a rule, opposed the project also. Their statements convinced the supervisors that they were not familiar with the frontage tax laws, and for that reason they decided to put off final consideration until next Thursday night.

The main argument advanced against the project was that its expense to the property owners would be hard for them to meet. Mr. Ashford met this argument with the statement that whatever the expense might be, the increased value of the property would more than make up for it.

CASSIDY CASE NOW BEING HEARD IN CIRCUIT COURT

All the wealth and beauty of Waikiki appeared to be present in Judge Dickey's court this morning when the Cassidy-Cressaty assault and battery case was called. The court corridors were filled with ladies who had evidently come prepared to spend the day. The regular court attendants and those whose business is to be around the courts gasped in surprise when they arrived for their day's work. The judiciary building looked like a county fair site and dreamy confections in the way of the latest Parisian fashions vied with the gayest of glad rags worn by the summer tourist of the male sex.

The famous appeal case in which John Cassidy asks the higher court to annul the fine of $50 which was inflicted in the police court, might well be a damage suit for $10,000, judging from the array of legal talent that appeared in court this morning.

It took a long time to get a jury and several men were challenged by the attorney for the prosecution.

As soon as a jury was selected it was agreed that the men who are to decide the merits of the case should proceed to Waikiki and inspect the site of the alleged assault.

John Cassidy is represented by A. D. Larnach and R. W. Breckons. Mrs. Cressaty has W. B. Lymer of the firm of Thompson, Wilder and Lymer, to look after her interests. The jury which is trying the case is as follows: J. Ordenstein, U. F. Lemon, C. Girdler, M. H. Webb, A. B. Angus, T. H. Hughes, H. Afong, E. F. Melanphy, W. H. Soper, G. H. Buttolph, C. McWayne, F. C. Miller. The jury returned from Waikiki at 11 o'clock and then the case was continued until noon, at which time it went over until Monday morning.

A meeting of the members of the Promotion Committee will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of commerce, Stangewald building, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

WAGES RAISED TEN PER CENT BY CITY DADS

Without much ado and with no dissenting vote, the board of supervisors passed a resolution last night, introduced by Supervisor M. C. Pacheco, restoring all salaries of the city and county employees to their former amounts, which means an increase of 1 per cent over the present salaries.

With this resolution, the question of salaries, which arose a few days ago when it became known that the city and county would receive something like $74,000 more in tax money than estimated the last of March when all employees of the municipality receiving over $50 a month were cut 10 per cent, is settled, for this period at least. The increase goes into effect the first of June.

Some hope had been held out by the employees that the supervisors would refund them the sums cut off their wages in April and May; but their resolution introduced last night ends this hope. However, though not receiving this money, the employees are rejoicing over their increased pay.

For the two months—April and May—when the cuts were operative, the city and county saved something over $4300. This along with the balance of the $74,000 will be spent on roads, it is planned. One important road prospect is under consideration, already—that is the strip of belt road by Walkane. An inspection has been made of this by the board members, and a tentative agreement has been reached to gravel several hundred yards of it.

In handling the salary question, there were three suggestions offered: 1, to give the employees back the sums represented by the 10 per cent cut at once; 2, to allow their salaries to remain at the present figures until the end of this semi-annual period, then to increase them 10 per cent, at the same time to refund the amounts cut from the salaries; 3, to say nothing about refunding, and increase all salaries uniformly 10 per cent in making up the new budget.

Pacheco's scheme as provided for in his resolution, proves a little different from any of the three plans. That it met with the approval of the board is indicated in its unanimous vote.

The Magoon-Lord-Young case was submitted this morning on points and authorities to be filed by both sides on or before noon on Monday next. Yesterday afternoon the court and all the lawyers visited the Kewalo district and inspected the land that has been filed in.

MANY GATHER TO MEET NOTED MISSION WORKERS

A large number of local persons who were interested in Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. work in Honolulu 12 years ago gathered in Cooke hall at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon to attend the formal reception given by the association to Mr. and Mrs. H. E.

Coleman, general secretaries respectively of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of Honolulu from 1895 to 1901. Miss Grace Cooke and Miss Thompson of the Kamehameha schools had decorated the hall in a tasteful manner with calla lilies and other cut flowers.

About 50 members of the older families of Honolulu were present. Both Mr. and Mrs. Coleman made informal talks, speaking briefly of the mission work which they are carrying on in Japan, the former telling how he has distributed his 200 Bible students over the city of Tokio. Refreshments were served at the close of the reception.

Next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Judge Whitney will take up the trial of the divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Rose Freitas against Nosh Freitas.
